

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Jesse Smith | November 12, 2017

This week we are finishing up the Old Testament book of Haggai and our focus is on how the Bible beautifully and miraculously works together from beginning to end. Ultimately, the Bible always points to the King of Kings, Jesus.

1. As a follower of Jesus, what do you anticipate eternal life will be like in the new heaven and the new earth?
2. Re-watch this summary video How to Read Haggai on RightNow Media in the River City Christian library. What did you learn in this short, but powerful book?

Read Haggai 2:20-23.

3. These verses point to the ultimate fulfillment of all things in Jesus Christ. What does this passage tell us about the lengths God will go to in order to fulfill His covenant promises, despite human sin?

Read Hebrews 12:25-29.

4. Making reference to the book of Haggai, why does the author of Hebrews tell us that we will receive a Kingdom that cannot be shaken? What reaction do you have to hearing this truth?

Read Revelation 16:12-19.

5. This passage gives us a fuller picture of what that day will look like when God shakes the heavens and the earth and all that is not of God will fall. What is your reaction to the truth taught in scripture that God will pour out his wrath on sin and sinners not covered by the blood of Jesus?
6. Jesse's emphasis, in the last 4 verses of Haggai, was that the sin of mankind cannot take away the promises of God given to those who believe. What specific promise of God has meant a lot to you through difficult times? Has there ever been a time in which negative circumstances tempted you to doubt God's promises? Please share your experience.
